

CHOYNSKI AND WALCOTT AGAIN.

They Are to Fight a Six-Round Bout in Chicago.

Joe Walcott and Joe Choynski have been matched again. They have been signed by Lou Housman, of Chicago, to try conclusion in a six-round bout at the boxing show to be pulled off by the Tattersalls Athletic Club in the Windy City on Dec. 27. This is the second time they have been matched to fight in a six-round bout in the latter city. Their first contest was declared off because Choynski was laid up at the time with injuries received in a fight with a heavyweight slugger named Russell. Choynski notified Housman a few days ago that he was well enough to fight and as he agreed to take on Walcott the match was quickly arranged.

Walcott Sure He'll Beat Choynski.

This battle will doubtless result in one of the most vicious fights ever witnessed in the Windy City. Both men hold a bitter grudge against each other since their fight at the Broadway Athletic Club, which was won by Walcott in quick time. Choynski claimed he was ill when he fought Walcott and he refused to admit his defeat. Walcott then said if he ever fought Choynski again he would beat him in the time. Choynski is confident of beating Walcott and there you are. A quick knockout may be looked for.

McCoy to Fight in England.

Kid McCoy has finally consented to do some fighting in England and has picked out as soft a mark as he could possibly have resurrected. The easy key is Australian Jim Ryan, who went to England some months ago looking for a fight. Ryan has been beaten ten to his country. He will meet McCoy in a twenty-round bout at the National Sporting Club, of London, within three weeks for a purse of $250.

Smith and McKeever to Fight.

"Mysterious Billy" Smith and Charley McKeever, the Philadelphia lighter, are to scrap again. They have fought so many times that it wouldn't be a bad idea to give out the news when they meet this evening. They have previously been secured by a Quaker club to try conclusions in a six-round bout at catch-as-can-be. Smith will only control himself and not resort to foul tactics the battle will be a hot one.

Boat and Biers for Prison.

There is every prospect that the long delayed glove contest between Jack Root, the middleweight champion of the West, and George Byers, the colored fighter of Boston, will occur in San Francisco on the 12th instant next month. The National A. C. has offered both men a purse for a twenty-round bout. Root is anxious to fight in "Priso" and doesn't mind the cost. The fight with Ryan is decided in Cincinnati and will start for the coast to prepare for the battle with Byers.

Calahan and Sullivan to Fight.

Tim Calahan, the clever feather-weight of Philadelphia, who recently transported Kit Beau to an all-round bout in Philadelphia, will have an important battle on his hands. He has been secured to fight Dave Sullivan in a twenty-round bout at the National Athletic Club, of Louisville, on Dec. 19.

Broderick and Connolly Matched.

Tom Broderick, the rugged lightweight fighter of New York, and Eddie Connolly, of St. John's, N. Y., who were recently put to sleep in two rounds by Otto Ziegler, have been matched to fight a fifteen-round bout at the next boxing at the Madison Square Garden, of Boston, to be decided the latter will win this amount. They are to light at 125 pounds for a purse of $250.

New Boxing Club in Philadelphia.

Another new athletic club has been organized in Philadelphia for the purpose of pulling offights. It will open its doors to the public to-morrow night. The new club will be known as the Biles Athletic Club and will hold its contests in a hall at Broad and Filbert streets. The opening show will bring together Jim Jeffries, of California; heavy-weight, and Denver Ed Martin, the colored slugger who is the surprising partner of Gus Rubin. As both men are fighters pure and simple it is expected that one of them will be counted out before the expiration of the sixth round.

Ryan-Burns Bout Declared Off.

The twenty-round bout between Tommy Ryan, of Syracuse, and Charley Burns, the Cincinnati middle-weight, arranged a few weeks ago for the 12th instant at the Omaha, A. C., Dec. 18, has been declared off. The refusal of the Mayor of the city to allow any more boxing shows to be given in the city has been responsible for the match falling through. The men will probably be matched again to meet at the new meeting club in York, Pa., on Dec. 20. Ryan is the matchmaker. If they do not get another club they will battle for a purse of $200.

Metcalf to Box Ryan.

Jack McClelland, the Pittsburgh fighter, and Billy Ryan, of Syracuse, who was defeated by Burns in a fifteen-round bout last night, have signed articles with a Matchmaker Tommy Ryan to fight in a twenty-round bout at the Mahoning A. C., in Youngstown, O., on Dec. 20, this night. They are to battle at 125 pounds for a purse of $200. Tommy Ryan will referee the contest.

MOE LEVY ASTOUNDS THEM.

Dissolution of the Firm Lends Him to Start a Great Sale of Clothing at Half Price.

Everybody knows Moe Levy, and everybody has marveled at the way he built up his clothing business. Starting nineteen years ago with $100 in capital, he grew by the power of his personality created a clothing business second to none in the United States. There is no bigger store, no finer store, no better clothing, no greater trade in all the world.

And yet Moe Levy didn't advertise in a more than one-half page space. He looked sharply to the manufacturing and saw that things were made as they ought to be made. Then he saw that no customer ever went away disappointed. Making his own goods was a double advantage. It meant well-made, reliable clothing. It saved middlemen profits, and the customer got the full benefit of both ways.

The business advertised itself. One customer brought another, and today Moe Levy is the largest clothing merchant in the United States who has a national fame and a national trade without having spent a penny in advertising.

A quick dissolution of the firm has been determined upon, and the first advertisement of the house is now published. It is necessary to let everybody know that the great stock of men's, boy's and children's clothing is to be sold at once at half price. It is the first time in the history of Moe Levy to any part of the Moe Levy clothing a penny under the Moe Levy price. As that price was always the lowest in the country, I think the grand bar gains they must be half."

WINNERS AT BENNING'S.

Healy Biggest Winner at Washington Meeting.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, BENNING'S, Dec. 8.— The racing races at Washington were run over a heavy track this afternoon. Heavy rains fell during the night, but by the time the races were run the weather cleared nicely. It was cloudy, but pleasant.

The Maximum Stakes, a three-mile race, was the attraction, which brought out one of the largest crowds of the meeting. A steeplechase was also among the attractions.

The winning owners of the meeting were T. J. Healy, $1,025; W. J. McCoy, $1,025; W. S. Daly, $1,025; J. McLaughlin, $1,025; Mrs. R. Roche, $1,025; C. P. Hill, $1,025; P. H. Sullivan, $1,025. Other owners to the number of ninety-six won amounts from $1,000 down.

The racing was very good throughout, and the meet was successful from every point of view. While the racing has not been high class, it has been clean and interesting, and a remarkable percentage of favorites won.
